September 29th 2008

Amsphere come 59th in the Sunday Times Microsoft Tech Track 100

Amsphere, the Delivery Assurance and Software Testing company, have finished 59th in the Sunday Times Microsoft Tech Track 100. The survey measures the fastest growing private technology companies and those that are likely to go on flourishing even in an economic slowdown. Amsphere have shown an annual sales growth of 54.95% making them one of the fastest expanding Software Testing consultancies in the UK.

“We are delighted to be recognised as one of the fastest growing private technology companies,” said Ricky Shankar CEO of Ampsphere. “It’s fantastic that a company who specialise in Delivery Assurance and Software Testing can make the list. This shows that business is taking the risks and issues associated with software quality more seriously.”

“I would like to thank all our customers, staff associates and partners who have made Ampsphere the success it has become” he concluded.

Sunday Times Microsoft Tech Track 100 is researched and compiled by Fast Track, the Oxford based Research Company. It measures the fastest growing private technology, telecoms and digital media companies by their average sales growth over a three year period between 2004 and 2007.
